

This invitational exhibition features recent work by five Augustana alumni artists:

Audrey Brown ('92)

Mark Hansen ('00)

justin carl hurty ('05)

Drew Starenko ('83)

John VandeWalle ('06)

These artists were invited by Augustana studio art and graphic design faculty to engage students and our community with the idea of living and working as an artist after graduation from Augustana College. We hope you will be able to join us for a roundtable discussion on the topic, taking place Monday, October 1. A reception begins at 6:30, with a conversation moderated by Megan Quinn, professor of art, from 7:00-8:00 pm.

On Tuesday, October 2, we will feature a performance by justin carl hurty in the Permanent Collection Gallery from 7:00-8:00 pm.

Both events are free and open to the public.

Acknowledgements:

Special thanks to Comet Blecha ('18, ATMA graphic designer), Lauren Clapp ('19, ATMA Marketing and Media Assistant), Katherine Hellberg (ATMA preparator), and Chamanthi Weerantunga (WIU Museum Studies, ATMA graduate assistant), Marlisa Barrett ('19), Jenna Isbell ('09), Trevor Lewandowski ('20), Eric Mathis, Delaney Page ('20), Jake Pecaut ('19), Audrey Rose ('19), Khine Thu ('19) (justin carl hurty installation assistants) for their help in making this exhibition a success.

All works courtesy of the artists, unless otherwise noted.

Some works in this exhibition are for sale. Please contact artists directly for more information.

Join the conversation on social media:
#5ArtistsContinuingToCreate #ATMA

Media Sponsor:
wvik
Quad Cities NPR® | 90.3FM