

Världen är Liten: the World is Small.

Modern Swedish and Swedish American Works

November 16, 2018 - February 9, 2019

Opening reception: November 16, 5:00-7:00 pm

This exhibition highlights works in ATMA's collections by Swedish and Swedish-American artists whose practice brought them into conversation with Parisian Modernism.

Centennial Hall Galleries 3703 7th Ave. Rock Island, IL 61201

Hours: Fridays & Saturdays, Noon-4 pm, or by appointment

For more information call 309-794-7400 email augieartmuseum@augustana.edu or visit augustana.edu/artmuseum

ASL Interpreters will be available at the opening reception.

   Facebook: @AugieArt Twitter: @AugieArt Instagram: @augieartmuseum

Join the conversation: #TheWorldIsSmallExhibition #ATMA

In partnership with the Figge Art Museum's exhibition of "French Moderns: Monet to Matisse, 1850-1950" and is supported, in part, by a grant from:

 SWEDISH COUNCIL of America  Promoting Swedishness in North America and strengthening ties between the United States, Canada and Sweden

EXHIBITION AND EVENTS ARE FREE, AND OPEN TO THE PUBLIC.

 AUGUSTANA TEACHING MUSEUM OF ART

Augustana College